

Spellers Story Club

Explore Wonderful New Worlds

AutisticallyInclined.com/Story-Club

Join us for $25/mo.

Story Schedule

March-August

March

"The Most Dangerous Game"

By Richard Connell (1924) - 56 min.

One of the most popular short stories of all time, the lines between hunter and beast blur in this suspenseful thriller.

April

"Through the Tunnel"

By Doris Lessing (1955) - 22 min.

A splendid display of The Hero's Journey, this coming-of-age story tells of one boy's quest to venture into the unknown.

May

"Rules of the Game"

By Amy Tan (1989) - 31 min.

With great use of symbolism, this story of parent-child dynamics and identity, tells of a girl who teaches herself chess.

June

"Man and Beast"

By Alan Rabinowitz (2005) - 17 min.

From The Moth stage of personal storytelling comes the inspiring tale of overcoming adversity and advocating for the voiceless.

July

"Wok Hei St"

By Guan Un (2022) - 42 min.

Performed on the exceptional LeVar Burton Reads Podcast comes a fun story of a stolen wok, magic, and manipulation.

August

"The Interlopers"

By Saki (1919) - 15 min.

In this short and twisty tale of reconciliation, two heads of feuding families find themselves pinned under a fallen tree.

created by jake pourchot

autistically inclined